Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

The new 35c. size contains over double the quantity of the 25c. size.

Five Men Will Own It.

The stock of the new Kona Coffee Company incorporation will be held by five men. Harry Lewis bought the entire property and will likely hold on to the longest block of shares. Just how much each man may hold will be determined. Two applications for the post of manager of the plantation have been handed in to Mr. Swanzy.

The Anchor.

P. T. Ryan still continues in charge of the Anchor and is ably assisted by William Carlyle. At the Anchor, Seattle beer on draught can always be had as well as the best brands of whiskeys, etc., including John Dewar's Scotch whisky. A full stock of other liquors, wines, etc., is kept on hand also.

Pure Milk and Fresh Eggs.

What is nicer and more refreshing than a fresh egg shaken up with pure milk, shaved ice and flavored to suit your taste with fresh syrups; invest 10c. and try one. Also shake made with pure milk and any desired flavor 5c.

PALAMA GROCERY,

Opposite Railway Depot, King street.

A Modern Fable.

One dark night an old and superannated watchdog who had been turned out to die in an empty hogshead in the alley back of the big store belonging to his master when he was awakened by a suspicious sound. Peering cautiously out of his retreat, he saw a man in a black mask creep stealthily up to the building and begin piling a lot of inflammable material against it.

"Ah," said the old watchdog, "there is a fine chance to return good for evil and heap coals of fire on the head of my cruel master. Only this morning he kicked me from the premises which I have guarded so long, saying, 'Begone, you worthless cur!' and, bruised, humbled and well nigh broken hearted, I crept in here to rest and reflect, little thinking that I would so soon have an opportunity to demonstrate my worth and earn the lifelong gratitude of my master by saving his property from the torch of an incendiary."

So saying, the faithful watchdog, summoning all his strength, sprang upon the masked intruder and bore him to the ground just as he was about to apply the match. There was a terrific struggle, but the mastiff bravely hung on until a policeman reached the spot and took charge of the would be incendiary.

The next day the insurance authorities took the case in hand, and in due course of time the faithful and plucky old watchdog was fitted out with a gold collar and furnished with an easy berth and luxurious quarters in a big insurance building, while the dog's ungrateful master (for the man in the black mask was indeed he) received his just deserts by being sentenced to seven years at hard labor for attempted arson.

Moral.—It never pays to go back on an old friend—either four legged or two legged—especially if you are going into some crooked transaction where he is liable to catch you at it.—Harper's Bazar.

Punched the Kaiser.

A German family in this city has received a letter from the fatherland purporting to give the true story of the so called accident to Kaiser Wilhelm, by which one of his eyes was blackened on board a German man-of-war. The incident was said at the time to have been caused by the dangling of a piece of rope.

According to the letter referred to, a Swedish steamer was sailing ahead of the German warship, and the emperor commanded an officer in command of the warship to order the steamer out of the course of the warship.

"We cannot do that on the high seas, your majesty," replied the officer. "International law gives them the right to be where they are."

"I am the emperor," cried the kaiser, smiting his breast in anger, "and I command you to make that steamer get out of the course."

"And I am in command of this ship and refuse to do so," replied the officer, also becoming excited.

The next instant the emperor, says the letter writer, slapped the officer's face. The latter struck the emperor with his fist in the eye. Then, realizing what he had done, and that his life was ruined, the officer jumped overboard and was drowned.—Chicago Chronicle.
